USM TO BEGIN
51st SESSION ON SEPTEMBER 17

HATTIESBURG - The University of Southern Mississippi will begin its 51st year on September 17. In commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the opening of the institution, and honoring all living members of the original faculty and student body, a re-enactment program is being planned by the USM Alumni Association.

At 10 a. m. on Sept. 18, 1912, the Mississippi Normal College, the first teachers training school in the state, opened its doors with appropriate ceremonies held on third floor of College Hall. There were 18 faculty members and 220 students.

Exactly 50 years later, at the same time on the same date, ceremonies will be held in the main auditorium instead of College Hall, which has long since been converted into classrooms. The USM Band will substitute for the Hattiesburg High School Band, which played at the original opening. University and local officials will extend greetings.

The principal address will be delivered by Dr. Willard F. Bond, of Jackson, a member of the original faculty from 1912 to 1916. The roll of original students will be called, and a period of silence will honor the memory of deceased members of the class and faculty.

Following this meeting, dedication ceremonies for two new dormitories, Bond Hall for men and Pulley Hall for girls, will be held. At 1 p. m., in the University Commons, the new million dollar cafeteria, a special luncheon for original students, their spouses or another friend, will be served. At this time every original student will have an opportunity to speak in "a free-for-all reminiscence period."

The public is cordially invited to attend the re-enactment program, and all early former students are urged to come.

Many of the original students are known to be deceased. Some are not listed by their married names, and others have not notified changes in address. Any information regarding the whereabouts of these original students will be appreciated by the USM Alumni office.

To give this information, or to secure further details regarding the re-enactment program, contact Powell Ogletree, executive secretary, USM Alumni Association, Box 13, Southern Station, Hattiesburg.

SOIL
NEWS

Mr. Joe Zary, Woodland Conservationist Hattiesburg, Miss. is to meet with the Agricultural Agencies of Hancock County in the Agricultural Building September 14, 1962; 10: A. M.

He is to give information on the woodland phase of the agricultural program.

All new farm ponds should be stocked with bream (bluegill fish) this fall, if a supply of water has filled the pond. By all means, the pond should be free of brush and debris, and sufficient fertilizer added to insure a good supply of natural food for the fish upon stocking the pond.

To get the fish for your fresh water ponds you need to make application through our office, if you are a Hancock County Soil Conservation District Cooperator, or the County Agents office. You can do this when you visit the Agricultural Agencies in Bay St. Louis, Miss. This is another of your free services.

Now is the time of year to do something about your drainage problems. That V or W ditch you have put off constructing should be built before winter.

After a few heavy rains, you won't be able to get equipment into those wet flats to build a good ditch for some time again.

Soil and water conservation planning for July and August 1962 includes 5 new SCD cooperators with basic plans covering 2,000 acres; 2 revised farm plans covering 278 acres. The farms include Mr. Paul Bounds and Mr. Robert Miller, Flatport Community; Mr. John Linder and Mr. Oliver Cuevas, Necaise Crossing; Mr. O'Malley, Fenton; Hancock County School Land; and Mr. W. Ray Whitfield, Picayune.

AT PRC
Mary Alice Kingston and Frieda Pernkharo, have enrolled at Pearl River Junior College.

THERE IS NO "R.E.A." IN MISSISSIPPI

"R. E. A." means "Rural Electrification Administration" which is a branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This agency serves as a bank for lending money to make electric power available in rural areas.

Following formation of this bank by Congress in 1935, Mississippians worked together in 26 areas of the state and formed "Electric Power Associations". They borrowed money from "R. E. A." to serve themselves with electricity. They are repaying the loans with interest.

Today these 26 associations serve more than 230,000 rural homes, farms, schools, churches and industries with electricity at reasonable rates. They are no more owned or controlled by "the government" or "R. E. A." than your home or car is owned and controlled by the finance company or bank through which you financed them. When you finance a new car, you don't tell the neighbors "We're driving a new blue 'Joe Doaks Finance Company' car." You bought that car on the strength of your credit, and you pay for it, with interest, as you drive it.

That's the way of the Electric Power Associations in Mississippi. The people who use the electricity are paying for it, along with the poles and lines, as they use it. They own the associations. They in no way constitute "federalized" or "socialized" power. These people built their associations with money borrowed from "R. E. A." and are repaying the loans with interest.

It's as simple as that. There is no "R. E. A." in Mississippi. There are 26 Electric Power Associations owned and controlled by the people they serve.

Electric Power Associations are no more owned or controlled by "R. E. A." than your home or car is owned or controlled by the bank or finance company through which it was purchased.

SUSIE'S IDEAS

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	1 John	8	22
Monday	John	9	45
Tuesday	Philms	12	1-3
Wednesday	John	4	25-26
Thursday	Galatians	4	4-4
Friday	Philms	4	4
Saturday	Matthew	9	12-13

Do you suppose Susie wants an addition for her doll family? Or ice cream and cake for supper tonight? Or a new pair of fancy black patent-leather shoes?

I'm Susie's mother, but I wouldn't know! You'd have to have seven league boots to keep pace with her active little mind!

For instance, she'd overheard us discussing our new family policy of having a suggestion box. Susie was determined to get into the act too. It is typical of her, typical of our family. We enjoy doing things together. We believe in unity in work, in play, and in prayer.

We center our family activities about the Church. The children go to Church School—Susie can hardly wait for each Sunday morning—and my husband is active in the Men's Club. I am president of the woman's group in our parish. Yet—it does take a lot of time and effort. But I am never happier than when I am doing church work, because I know how truly worthwhile it is. Don't forget that your church needs workers too! Just as you need the Church!

Peterson-Lohman Wedding

St. Clares Catholic Church, Waveland, was the setting for the marriage Saturday morning of Miss Joyce Lohman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lohman of New Orleans, and Robert Bernard Peterson Jr., son of Mrs. Peterson of Clermont Harbor.

The Rev. John O'Brien, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony at a Nuptial Mass at 10 o'clock.

White gladioli, mums and greenery decorated the altar, with palms in the chancel.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace and organza. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves, and the bouffant skirt fell into a train. Her short veil of illusion was attached to a small tiara of rhinestones and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of fleur d'amour centered with a white orchid.

Bridesmaids were Miss Maria Peterson, Clermont Harbor, cousin of the groom, Miss Francis Lister and Miss Angel Silver, both of New Orleans. They wore street length dresses in shades of orchid, pink and yellow organza with matching velvet head bands trimmed with short circular veils. They carried bouquets of cascade fleur d'amour with ribbons matching their dresses.

Frank Peterson Jr., of Clermont Harbor was best man and Larry Peterson and John Perkins were groomsmen.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Parish Hall.

The bride's table, covered with a linen cutwork cloth, was centered with a tiered cake flanked by candelabra holding white tapers.

The mother of the bride received their guests wearing a beige dress, matching accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white mums.

The mother of the groom chose a blue silk, dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white blossoms.

After their return from a wedding trip along the Gulf Coast, the couple will make their home in New Orleans.

Victor Mature, as a Viking chieftain, engages in a deadly duel with Orson Welles, leader of the Tartars, in the spectacular new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer release, "The Tartars," a sweeping drama of two warring primeval civilizations. The picture was filmed in Yugoslavia and Italy in Technicolor. Starting with late show Saturday, at the SAND Theatre, Gulfport.
